

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

the supplementary report which the committee might make, a system of co-operative activity might develop from within by the process of evolution. A number of matters of great importance are now under consideration with reference to this work, announcement concerning which will be made in due course of time. Meantime, if your Purchasing Agent has not yet sent in the material the Committee has asked for please remind him of the importance of doing so at once.

PERSONAL ITEMS

It is an interesting fact that Secretary Baker and Senator Chamberlain are both graduates of the same university—Washington and Lee.

President Pierce of Kenyon College, Ohio, has just been summoned on Red Cross service and is sailing for France.

President Blaisdell and wife are now in Japan. Dr. Blaisdell is on a tour of inspection of Japanese colleges.

Watch for photographs of the college military activities in the April number of Scribner's Magazine.

One of the greatest pieces of co-operative publicity yet attempted is now being carried on in "The Continent" by the Presbyterian Colleges U. S. A. under the leadership of the College Board.

Under the leadership of its new president, Melvin A. Brannon, Beloit College is changing from the semester plan to a trimester plan including summer work. This will make it possible for students to graduate in three years.

President P. M. Campbell, of the University of Oregon, is in Washington as a representative of the Emergency Council in Education.

President James Scherer, of Throop College, California, has been granted leave of absence to serve in Washington as a member of the Council of National Defense.

Through the courtesy of President Hughes, we are able to offer free to each subscriber of the bulletin a copy of the pamphlet embodying elaborate charts on the entire organization of Miami University with its subsidiary organizations analyzed in great detail. These charts were exhibited at the annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges and created much favorable comment. It has long been the practice of large business houses, municipalities, etc. to chart their lines of activity and effort in graphic form and this is an excellent application on the idea of college organizations. Please send three cents in stamps with your request for the pamphlet.